

Daryl Dance

I hope our newsletter will reach writers, especially young ones and underprivileged ones (even perhaps those incarcerated). As a board member, I bring experience—experience with the Collective from its inception; experience as a folklorist, experience as an interviewer, experience as a teacher, and experience as a writer.